UNDERWEIGHT IS NOT RECOGNIZED BY DIST. BOARD

Cantonment Surgeons to Pass Finally Upon Such Claims for Exemption.

Underweight or flat-feet are not to be causes for discharges from the National Army by the district board according to rulings made public today. Such cases will have to be passed upon by the cantonment surgeons.

Neither will that board consider the conditional discharge from the army of artisans whose work may be learned by another person within from three to four weeks' time.

Another point decided in one of the most interesting reports upon individual cases recently made by the district board is that dependency passed upon by the courts such as the support of a child, alimony payments, etc. are not dependency claims upon the exemption board subject to consideration under the War Department rulings.

In the cases of men who can show by letters from the commanding officers that they are active in another branch of the United States service, exemptions will likely be granted upon precedent set yesterday.

Neither is claimmaking considered of sufficient national service to warrant the exemption of those drafted for army service, although the campaigns for "smokes for soldiers" is recognized as a worthy cause by government officials.

Street railway employees operating cars and express company employees are not exempted nor are sky-light workers and some of the United States mail divers who can be replaced by others of older age within a reasonable period of time.

Of cases reopened by the board yesterday for reconsideration or temporary discharge and one was denied. New evidence presented to the board in four cases was unavailing with one case resulting in conditional discharge.

Those whose cases were passed upon in the Bridgeport divisions yesterday are:

Industrial Claims—Denied.
John Stengel, skylight worker; William B. Estnyk, polisher, no claim by company; Sherman E. O'Connor, mail wagon driver; John M. Peterson, barrel grinder, Remington, no claim by company or evidence; Ardizon, Gaetano, cigar manufacturer; Edward Meehan, motorman, street railway.

Conditional Discharges.
John Cantor, valve fitter Grant Mfg. Co., March 20, 1918; Albert E. Hughes, Remington, machinist, March 20; Victor S. Wrenn, rifle, Remington Arms, denied on dependency, conditional discharge to March 20; on industrial, Clifford A. Butler, millwright, Bullard, conditional discharge March 20; Harold Longway, assembler of engines, Locomobile Co., conditional discharge March 20.

Dependency Appeals—Denied.
David Lemmon, late marriage (June 18, 1917); Harry Juester, one child but father compelled by law to support it.

Physical Disability—Denied.
Frank N. McKee, Sixth district, underweight claim, four pounds. Deferred Awaiting Additional Evidence.

Sylvester A. LaPierre, board refused to reconsider; Giacchino Riccotta, conditional discharge to Dec. 20 for operation; Henry S. Crowell, Sixth division, referred back to local board for re-examination and action; William B. Adams, deferred for full record.

Not Certified to Local Boards But Now Must Go.

George G. Kemp, machinist, Projectile Co., 2 to 4 weeks to train; Elmer T. Nitschen, toolmaker, Locomobile Co., no evidence; Frank Harlow, Adams expressman; Meyer E. Dow, physical appeal—qualifies even on new evidence submitted; Calogero Millitapa, dependent parents in Italy; Edward D. Dobelstein, physical and support of small brother; made no claim to local board; both denied; no evidence.

Reconsidered on New Evidence.
Denied.
Roy Phillips, (Second district), widowed mother, no new evidence not before local board; Benjamin E. Harnan, no jurisdiction, degree of relationship not covered by regulations; Herbert Hayward, flat feet, refused to reconsider; John E. Garrity, machinist and grinder, U. M. C., denied on dependency but given conditional discharge to March 20 on industrial.

The Eskimo Skin Canoe.

The kayak, or skin canoe, of the Eskimo was in use on the coast of northern Russia two or three centuries ago, according to Dr. MacRitchie, F. S. A. (Scott). Evidence of this is obtained from statements made by Burrough in 1556 and from the chronicles of a Danish expedition to Valgatz in 1653. It was further shown that three kayaks were captured off the northern shores of Scotland about the end of the seventeenth century. One of these is still preserved in the museum of Marischal college, Aberdeen. An important fact is the occasional presence of a kayak-using race of Finns or Finmen in the Orkney islands during the last twenty years of the seventeenth century, as testified to by three writers of that period.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

Pretty Plush Coat Trimmed With Fur

Here is a plush coat trimmed with fur which will prove a joy to its wearer. Since the business of coats is to provide warmth and look well it is evident that this model is fully equal to its responsibilities. It is dependable for all sorts of wear and equal to any emergency, like a fur coat.

Its lines are long and its design simple—two things that contribute to beauty and chic style. In black or dark brown it provides the right kind of background for all sorts of fur trimmings. In the model pictured the fur called "blue wolf" is used for the deep cuffs, luxurious collar and band about the bottom.
